ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Eric Franceries began his formal music education at the age of 8, attending the National Academy of Lyon, where his father was an instructor. In 1977, he enrolled in the National Superior Music Academy of Paris to study under Alexandre Lagoya, during which time he won numerous competitions. Since 1980, he has been a music instructor at the Chambéry Academy and an international performer. He is now well established as a world-class guitarist and very much acclaimed by the public and critics everywhere.
