We Welcome You!

Dear Competitors, Distinguished Members of the Jury, and Guests,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the 3rd Bösendorfer & Schimmel USASU International Piano Competitions. It is our mission to encourage and assist young artists to fulfill their destinies. As Anastasia Markina, our 2006 Gold Medalist and First Prize David Katzin Award winner, said to her audience following a benefit recital for our competition, "I was born to do this."

The competition is created through a collaboration between the Arizona Young Artist Committee, a non-profit organization dedicated to the nurturing of young talented pianists in our state since 1991, and the Herberger College School of Music at Arizona State University.

I thank Kwang-Wu Kim, dean of the ASU Herberger College of the Arts, and Kimberly Marshall, director of its School of Music, for their encouragement and continuous support of this event. I also thank the Herberger College and School of Music staff and the members of the Young Artist Committee for their endless hours of work on this project. Additionally, this event would not have been possible without the generous support of the Bösendorfer and Schimmel piano companies, local philanthropists dedicated to arts and music, as well as private and corporate sponsors. I am privileged to lead an event of this magnitude, and I deeply thank all who made it happen.

More than 7,000 brochures were distributed internationally for the 2008 competitions and 133 pianists from 19 countries applied. A committee comprised of five professional pianists screened recordings of the applicants, and 42 young pianists rose to the top and were selected as our semi-finalists. They are gathered to take part in a non-biased competition of utmost integrity and to share their artistry with us.

It is our mission to discover and encourage pianists who possess a personal voice of interpretation and musical conviction, in harmony with the legacy of the great artists of the past. Our distinguished jury will award those competitors who convey themselves as true artists. I wish for all of our competitors to be inspired by each note they play and to continue their musical passion in the future.

Very best wishes,

DR. BARUCH MEIR

Robert Hamilton

Internationally respected pianist and recording artist Robert Hamilton has been enthusiastically reviewed by two chief music critics for The New York Times. Harold C. Schonberg, who also authored The Great Pianists, wrote: "He is a very fine artist. All of Hamilton's playing has color and sensitivity...one of the best of the million or so around." And, Donal J. Henahan reported: "It was an enthralling listening experience. We must hear this major talent again, and soon!"

Hamilton studied at Indiana University with the first winner of the coveted Levintritt award, Sidney Foster, and graduated summa cum laude. A move to New York City brought studies with Dora Zaslavsky of the Manhattan School, coaching from legendary pianist Vladimir Horowitz, a host of monetary awards from the Rockefeller Fund and U.S. State Department, the launching of a strong career and the winning of five major international competitions.

Hamilton has made countless tours of four continents' music capitals. His orchestral engagements have included the Chicago, National, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Phoenix, Indianapolis, Grant Park, Chautauqua and S.O.D.R.E symphony orchestras. Hamilton has been broadcast over NPR, ABC, BBC London, Voice of America, Armed Forces Network, DRS Zurich and Radio Warsaw. He has recorded for Phillips, Orion and Summit Records. A recent 2004 release brought this comment from Audiophile Audition: "Hamilton has a blazingly brilliant approach to this repertory, delivering powerful, often breathtaking interpretations. Exposure will make any future hearing of these works seem pallid." The American Record Guide added: "Hamilton's playing is full of integrity, rare brilliance and grandeur. This is a pianist I would like to have studied with." Hamilton's students also have won many prizes and awards, appearing with several U.S. symphonies, as well as the London Westminster Philharmonic, Orchestre Philharmonie d'Avignon, Kammerorchester Dusseldorf, Pazardjik National Orchestra, Sydney Symphony Orchestra, Nagoya Gakuen Philharmonic and Korea Symphony.

Featured in the book, The Most Wanted Piano Teachers in the USA, Hamilton also served as artistic director of the London Piano Festival during the 1990s. Since 2000, he has joined with Vladimir Feltsman and a distinguished group of prominent international pianists each July for PianoSummer in New York. Hamilton is an official Steinway Artist.

The Bösendorfer Imperial Concert Grand Piano made possible by the generosity of David Katzin.

DEAN KWANG-WU KIM thanks DAVID KATZIN and his family on behalf of the ASU HERBERGER COLLEGE OF THE ARTS for the transformative gift of the rare and very special Bösendorfer Imperial Concert Grand Piano for Katzin Concert Hall. The piano is used by students, faculty and renowned guest artists of the Herberger College School of Music and the Bösendorfer & Schimmel USASU International Piano Competitions.

Originally built upon the suggestion by composer Ferruccio Busoni, the Imperial has 97 keys for a full eight octaves. This expanded range allows faithful performances of a number of compositions by Bartók, Debussy, Ravel and Busoni. The magnificent instrument generates a powerful and poignantly full tone. It is present in some of the world's great concert halls, and the college is honored to receive such a gift.

Entrepreneur, philanthropist and life-long music lover, David Katzin has been, and continues to be, one of Herberger College's most generous investors. His involvement with the ASU Herberger College of the Arts extends in many directions – from endowing the magnificent concert hall that bears his father's name to underwriting the first prize in the Bösendorfer & Schimmel USASU International Piano Competitions.

On behalf of the college and the competitions, thank you, David!

a competition of utmost integrity

The voting procedure for the 3rd Bösendorfer & Schimmel USASU International Piano Competitions was designed by John MacBain, PhD, who is both a mathematician and violinist. Involving sophisticated computer software that calculates results based on numerical scores, this system previously was designed for and used successfully by the International Violin Competition of Indianapolis, the Cleveland International Piano Competition and the Van Cliburn International Piano Competition.

The system has two underlying premises. The first is that the opinion of a juror is contained not so much in the actual scores given, but in the distribution and spacing of the scores. This is coupled with an assumption that each juror has only a certain amount of "opinion" to contribute to the final decision, much like sending someone on a purchasing trip with a fixed budget.

In order to maintain the integrity of the voting process, jury members abstain from voting for any competitor they have taught in the past three years, will teach in the immediate future, or for competitors with whom they have a family relationship. Jury members also may waive their vote for personal or professional reasons. All declarations of abstentions are made the night before the competition begins and are maintained throughout the competition. Jury members score each candidate on a scale of 1 to 25 (except for declared abstentions).

All voting is by written ballot, without discussion. Jury members sign their ballots with a number, picked at random, which are known only to the executive director, statistician and president. To balance the scores of a consistently high-scoring juror with a consistently low-scoring juror, the scores of all jurors are processed by the computer software to the same statistical distribution. This scoring procedure eliminates the impact of any one juror's abstention. The decision of the jury is final and is not subject to challenge or review.

Anastasia Markina Gala Recital
Sunday, Jan. 6, 7:30 p.m.
Katzin Concert Hall

Gold medalist and winner of the First Prize David Katzin Award 1st Bösendorfer USASU International Piano Competition in 2006.

"Miss Markina performed Medtner's extensive Sonata – Reminiscenze Op. 38 No. 1 with great passion, she displayed instant delicacy of technique, and seemed to be on with the keyboard, whether passage were gentle or intense. Her soothing artistry wove a web of mystery, capturing every subtle variation in the work."

David Dow Bently III
"The People's Critic"

Anastasia Markina was born in St. Petersburg, Russia in 1978. She started playing piano when she was almost four. Her first teacher, Tatiana Shrago, led Markina to win her first competition when she was 10. In 1992, she took the prize at the International Piano Competition in Marsala, Italy. After graduating from music school, Markina studied with Alexander Mndoyants and Maria Mekler. In 1994, she entered the Rimsky-Korsakov College of Music, where she studied for four years with Mary Guseva, student of Pavel Serebryakov. While there, Markina won several international piano competitions, including first prizes at the 1st International Maria Yudina Piano Competition and in solo and chamber music at the Beach of Hope International Music Festival and Competition in Dobrich-Albena, Bulgaria. She was one of the three prize winners at the 1997 Peter the Great Music Festival in Groningen, Holland.

After receiving her diploma with honors from the Rimsky-Korsakov College of Music, Markina was invited to study in the U.S. by Victor Rosenbaum, well-known teacher and pianist, and director of the Longy School of Music in Cambridge, Mass. In 1999, she continued her education at the University of North Texas in the studio of professor Vladimir Viardo, gold medalist of the 1973 Van Cliburn International Piano Competition. While at UNT, Markina continued winning competitions throughout the U.S., including first prize at the San Angelo Sorantin International Music Competition, first prize at the 1st Bösendorfer USASU International Piano Competition, first and grand prize at the Young Texas Artist Music Competition and second prize at the 1st Jose Iturbi Music Competition. In November 2005, she performed Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini with the San Angelo Symphony under Hector Guzman. In January 2007, she performed Ravel's Piano Concerto in G with the Phoenix Symphony under Lawrence Golan.
