

Orkota Percussion Duo
Darin Wadley – University of South Dakota
Robert Brudvig – Oregon State University

Kaztin Concert Hall
Guest Artist Concert Series
Sunday, September 28, 2008
7:30 PM

Program

Latin Suite for two marimbas* Sabor Inclinado En Las Tardes Joropo	Michael Coolen (b. 1945)
In Tandem for two percussionists*	Josh Gottry (b. 1973)
The Plot Really Thickens*	Charles Dibley (b. 1943)
Toccatà for vibraphone and marimba	Anders Koppel (b. 1943)
Pas de Deux	Gregory Youtz (b. 1945)

*commissioned by the Orkota Percussion Duo

School of Music

Program Notes

The Orkota Percussion Duo was formed in the Fall of 2006 by Darin Wadley and Robert Brudvig. Both graduates of The University of Arizona, Darin Wadley is the Director of Percussion at the University of South Dakota and Robert Brudvig is the Director of Percussion at Oregon State University. The duo is committed to commissioning new works for percussion and has provided several concerts and master classes throughout the Northwest and South Dakota. The name Orkota comes from the combining of Oregon and South Dakota.

School of Music